Mission Statement

The mission of the Edmond Quilt Guild is to preserve, teach and share the history and art of quilting

President's Report– Laura James

I was glad to see so many of you at Rose State for the joint meeting with Norman. The theater proved to be a wonderful venue. I'd like to thank Terry Dean for arranging our use of the building for both our class and the general meeting. Mickey Depre wowed us with a great all digital presentation and dazzled us with her many inspired artistic quilts. I look forward to our next joint meeting with the Norman Guild in 2008.

Now with the record-breaking rains of June behind us I'm hopeful for a mild and peaceful July. Normally June invites gardening and outdoor activities, which leaves quilting behind, but not so this year. I'll be curious to see what a month of rain has inspired in terms of quilting productivity.

Finally, remember to bring your completed quilt show entry forms to the July meeting if you haven't already mailed them in.

See you soon

Laura

Program Report - Alice Kellogg

What a delight it was to have Mickey DePre. Her quilts are so cheery and you can't help but smile when you see them. We sent her home with some adventures to share with her family and fellow teachers. I told her to be sure to clarify that the guy that tried to pick her up at the hotel was from Arkansas and not Oklahoma!

Next is Susan Lucky. I have known Susan for many years and was still surprised and moved when she presented her talk to our small group (hey! another good reason to start a small group. They are great guinea pigs for new ideas). I know you will enjoy her too.

July 17: Susan Lucky will speak to us about her "Legacy of Hope" project and working with the ABC baby quilt project. She will be an inspiration to all of you and we are proud to have her as a guild member.

August 21: Phil Charlton will open your world to quilting with computers. The computer can be a valuable tool to quilters and he will show us how.

September 18: Time to think about Christmas projects! Doris Williams and Ann Woods will have a trunk show of numerous Christmas quilts and other quilted Christmas items. You are sure to be inspired.

October 16: Puzzle Quilts with Leola Jenkins. Leola has a unique eye for color and form. You will love her work and her quilting outlook.

November 20: Quilt Bingo! Lots of fun and lots of prizes.

December 18: Christmas party

Quilt Show Chairman – Lee Gray

A Quilt Show announcement letter plus fliers have been mailed out to all quilt shops in Oklahoma and also to surrounding guilds.

We have purchased an ad in the COQG Quilt Show program and will have fliers available there. A special thank you to Dagmar Peery our Publicity Chairman for all her hard work. If you did not pick up your t-shirt from Dagmar at the June meeting, it will be available at the July 17th meeting. They look great! Be sure and wear yours often to help us advertise our upcoming Quilt Show.

I hope everyone has their Quilt Show Entry Forms ready. You may mail them to Cameron Potter our Display Chairman. The last opportunity to enter will be at our July 17th meeting, so get those forms mailed or bring them to the July 17th meeting.

We were able to sell raffle quilt tickets at the Quilting Post in Perkins during the Shop Hop. Alice (Kellogg) sold tickets all day Thursday and Friday and I sold them on Saturday. It was lots of fun and we sold lots of tickets. Alice is doing a great job of circulating our raffle quilt to sell tickets but we still need to have everyone doing their part, so sell more raffle quilt tickets. Quilt fast-- the Quilt Show date is rapidly approaching!

Lee Gray

Membership Report– Debi Pickens

We now have 129 members of the guild. All but 37 of you missed a great meeting with Mickey Depre. We also shared 10 guests with the Norman Guild. That means since it was a national speaker we charged guests $5 each. The Norman group got half the money and we kept half. Most of our guests were from the Mid West City Guild and came to hear Mickey.

I enjoyed the workshop greatly! Please take advantage of these speakers. I always learn so much even when they aren't my type of quilting. I always take away something that helps me improve my next quilt.

Guild Members:

Fons and Porter's Love of Quilting is again offering to local guilds participation in their Guild Subscription program. This allows each of us as guild members to renew our subscription (or order a new subscription) for the low cost of $20.00 with $5.00 of the cost being retained by the guild for our operating expenses.

What do you receive:

A one-year subscription to Love of Quilting

How do you renew or order a subscription? It simple:

- Your check to Edmond Quilt Guild for the $20.00 subscription price.
- You name and mailing address for the subscription.

Whether it is a new or renewal subscription.

Orders will be submitted weekly. So order your Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting and enjoy a great quilting magazine and benefit the Edmond Quilt Guild.

Look Who's Moving

Quilter's Corner in Midwest City is moving locations. They are not going far, just across the parking lot in the same shopping center. They will be expanding to 4000 square feet and plan to be in their new space mid- July.
